

Hideaway

Needtobreathe

When you're tired of being tired
And you feel like you're alone
I'm just trying to be the place
Where you can rest your weary bones
But you don't have to worry
'Cause you don't know where to land
I'm everywhere you are
'Cause you're everything I am

I'm not your saving grace
Nobody's hero, babe
Not sure what I can change
But I'll be your hideaway
Baby, don't be afraid
Some things you can't escape
Baby, I'll keep you safe
I'll be your hideaway

Oh, I'm not trying to fix you
I'm just trying to keep you warm
And I don't have the answers
But I could never love you more
But you don't have to worry
'Cause you don't know where to land
Just know that I'll be waiting
On the other end

I'm not your saving grace
Nobody's hero, babe
Not sure what I can change
But I'll be your hideaway
Baby, don't be afraid
Some things you can't escape
Baby, I'll keep you safe
And I'll be your hideaway

I'll be your hideaway

Whatever storm you're facing
Baby, whatever you're chasing
I know that we can take it
We're gonna find a way
Hang on, the road is winding
Hold on till you can find it
Chase down the silver lining
We're gonna find a way

I'm not your saving grace
Nobody's hero, babe
Not sure what I can change
But I'll be your hideaway

Whatever storm you're facing
Baby, whatever you're chasing
I know that we can take it
We're gonna find a way
Hang on, the road is winding

Hold on till you can find it
Chase down the silver lining
We're gonna find a way

Whatever storm you're facing
Baby, whatever you're chasing
I know that we can take it
I'll be your hideaway
Hang on, the road is winding
Hold on till you can find it
Chase down the silver lining
