

Mazes

Needtobreathe

You're breathing, heart beating
Got your fingernails digging in your seat and You're letting everyone make your decisions, well
Your heart and your mind are
Arguing over who can get farther
It would be beautiful if you could just take that step

You got to walk through the mazes
Don't let anybody take you, oh-oh
'Cause what you're doing isn't right

You got to walk through the hazes
Don't let anybody phase you, oh-oh
Is there a reason for tonight?

It's over, and it's done
And you think if you'll ever get another one
A chance to make a change, and do something better, well
Your heart and your mind are
Arguing over who can get farther
It would be beautiful if you could just take that step

You got to walk through the mazes
Don't let anybody phase you, oh-oh
'Cause what you're doing isn't right

You got to walk through the hazes
Don't let anybody take you, oh-oh
Is there a reason for tonight?

Don't let anybody phase you
