

No Excuses

Needtobreathe

I've got this feeling in my bones
That you find a solace in shadows
I don't wanna find out you're going 'round my back
Why you wanna bring me these sorrows

Cause there's no excuses for what you're doing
There's no excuses for what you're doing

Girl, I've been your lover since high school
Everything I did, I did for you
If you're gonna tighten this rope around my neck
Girl, you better know I'm gonna fight it

Cause there's no excuses for what you're doing
There's no excuses for what you're doing

Cause there's no excuses for what you're doing
There's no excuses for what you're doing
