

Return

Needtobreathe

It's hard enough to know something made us not the same
Did I give all I can give, spend all I can spend in vain?

We were holding on to life waiting for the sun to rise
We could not believe the sunlight never crossed our eyes
I'm giving you my all to break again, oh, I'm leaving you a way to get back in
Return to me, return to me yeah
Return to me, return to me

Yeah

Oh

We were holding on to life waiting for the sun to rise
We could not believe the sunlight never crossed our eyes
I'm giving you my all to break again, oh, I'm leaving you a way
to get back in
Return to me, yeah, return to me, yeah
Return to me, ohh, return to me

Every heart grows tired
Every fire goes out
So don't hurt any more
And it's all my fault that you're behind this wall
I'll be here when you break it
Let it go

Return to me, return to me, yeah
Return to me, return to me

I'm giving you my all to break again
