

Separated

Needtobreathe

Separated
Left when I was eight years old
Cover faded
Someone never felt so cold

If you could only see what you mean to me
Maybe you might be the one who didn't leave
And all that you would need is just to believe
That a little boy dreams
But you'd rather
Go
Go

Will you show me?
Will you ever let me know
Will you love me?
I've been feeling so alone

If you could only see what you mean to me
Maybe you might be the one who didn't leave
And all that you would need is just to believe
That a little boy dreams
But you'd rather
Go
Go

I want to thank the people in my life
Who showed me what it means to be a man, man, man!
I want to thank you for being there
Showing me that you sincerely care, care, care!

Who'd take the time, who'd learn a lot?
You shouldn't be the one bearing out
And every time we have to watch it again
And you got work? No, you got plans
I'm a kid and wouldn't understand
Maybe I could just explain

If you could only see what you mean to me
Maybe you might be the one who didn't leave
And all that you would need is just to believe
That a little boy dreams
But you'd rather
Go
