

The Dancing Bumble Bee / Bumble Bee Boogie

Neil Diamond

And when the hot winds blow tonight
The dancing bumble bee takes flight
And all the flowers in the field
Prepare their nectar soon to yield
Dance
Dance
Fly
Fly

Behold the dancing bumble bee
And as they gather 'round to see
His rhythm burns like a raging fire
In passion by that sweet desire
Dance
Dance
Fly
Fly

Dance
Dance with me here tonight
I'll make you warm and right
I'll make you warm tonight
Come dance

He danced until the morning came
Until the music's last refrain
And though he knew it soon would end
He only lived to dance again
Dance
Dance
Fly

Dance
Dance with me here tonight
I'll make you warm and right
I'll make you warm tonight
Come dance
