

Wreck

Neko Case

Calm down, darling
Don't take me too hard

Please come back soon
Sooner than you want to
It's the only thing in this whole world
That would please me

I know it's selfish
But you're the sun now
And it's a big job
One you didn't apply for
But maybe you want this too?
Do I look like the sun to you?
Do I blaze freckles onto your face?
I bet, I bet, I bet I do
(I bet, I bet, I bet I do)

I'm a meteor shattering around you
And I'm sorry
But I've become a solar system
Since I found you

I'm an eruption
A wreck of possibilities
A volatility of stars
My clothes can't hold together
And I know I can't burn this bright forever

So just stay till the end of the fireworks show
There's no way to know what will happen
But it's for you and me
And I can live with that
Whether or not you leave
So please
Don't be afraid of me or my love
So please
Don't be afraid of me or my love
