

Dressed as Goblins

Nekrogoblikon

nice to see the friends
do it all again

but in a way it's all so surreal and cerebral i'm tryin' to feel good- i'm diggin' the tempo- another memento for my long lost dream of life on the outside lookin' in i've got a power struggle- i can't wa it to win
we're in a different dimension (we're in a different dimension)
- a dimension where you're still a fish try to breathe- don't need to speak to me hang on to the sights and sounds time is passing fast

and i never want this world to end life- what a fuckin' joke ha ha ha ha, ha ha ha ha boom- now we all explode

we are at the show
dressed as goblins
now we all explode

in a different way it's all too real- i'm still tryin' to feel good winnin' or losin'-another illusion- another distraction from a bygone way of life on the inside lookin' out- i got a feeling it's too late for me to pull out from the other dimension- it's a different dimension- a dimensi on full of nasty pricks try to breathe- don't even to speak to me

oh when the end has come around, oh when the world has let you down and there's nothing to keep you going and all your dreams have come to pass- you never knew life went so fast
now you see everybody

now it's time to die
there's no reason why
