

The Magic Spider

Nekrogoblikon

there's a magic spider on the wind he spins a web for you and if you wish upon a spider all your wishes will all come true there's a magic spider 'round the bend watching your every move

all your dreams willl come true too i search the world for a magic spider with the fire in my eyes across dimensions unknown i must reveal this web of lies into the galaxy we fly with the promise of a spider in our eyes intercosmic galacticon route number five i must retrieve the spider
