

Good Day

Nektar

I looked into the morning
What did I see?
A face, another place
another way to be free
So I took one big step with my hand on my eyes and hoped that my mind
would be satisfied.

I wish you Good day
I wish you Good day.

I just took one step
when a voice did prevail
If you come any closer you'll wish you had stayed.
The voice that I heard didn't do me no good Cos' I stepped out too far now the world knows I should.

I wish you Good day
I wish you Good day.

Good day my people
Good day to you now,
I'm gonna leave you forever
Good day, Good day.
