

Slightly Dandy

Nell

Strutting through the downtown
Feeling kinda sad
Looking for some easy kind of love

Each of us so plastic
Each of us so blue
Looking for another one so true
So true

Oh, that's us
Looking slightly dandy, that's us
Feeling rather trendy, that's us
Looking slightly dandy, that's us
God, you're looking trendy

Each of us is sacred
Almost like a saint
My boyfriend's eyes are two lakes
Dying for emotion
You want something true?
How about another line before I fall for you
For you

Oh, that's us
Looking slightly dandy, that's us
Feeling rather trendy, that's us
Looking slightly dandy, that's us
God, you're looking trendy

One more line before I stop
One more line before I go down on you
One more line before we stop
