

Rise

Nemesea

'll break it down for you
'Cause you don't see it
They're not in line for you
But you believe that

You keep coughing up regrets
Oh, your lungs have been inflamed for quite a while

I'm always undermined
Keep, keep repeating
Refuel your sorrowed mind
Keep, keep on bleeding

You keep coughing up regrets
Oh, your lungs have been inflamed for quite a while

Crawling so slow throughout your mind
Pull up your sleeves or stay behind
You got to rise, rise, rise
There's nothing left to glorify
Rise up before your time expires
Yeah, you got to rise, rise, rise

Why do you roll your eyes
When there's a limit?
So scared to say goodbye
Oh, that's forbidden

You keep coughing up regrets
Oh, your lungs have been inflamed for quite a while
You and your golden cigarettes
You keep dopin' up with water in your eyes

Crawling so slow throughout your mind
Pull up your sleeves or stay behind
You got to rise, rise, rise
Rise up before your time expires
Yeah, you got to rise, rise, rise

You keep coughing up regrets
You should stop pointing fingers at the sky
Every night you keep dopin' up with water in your eyes

Crawling so slow throughout your mind
Pull up your sleeves or stay behind
You got to rise, rise, rise
Rise up before your time expires
Yeah, you got to rise, rise, rise
