

Sarah

Nemesea

Fool me
Just pretend you're mine
Scare me
Grab my hand on time
Sarah sold her eyes
She would do it twice
70 prayers in bright daylight
Solemnly swore I would fight

Come see Sarah setting course now
Flying shards will cut her sails down

Submerged in your alkaline
Smothered by a black cloud nine
Holding on to what was us
Clinging fists around wind and around dust
Holding on to this freak show
It is braver to turn around and just let it go

Come see Sarah setting course now
Flying shards will cut her sails down

She is almost there
A change is in the air
Don't hold your tongue for me
When she drowns, I am free

Sarah sold her eyes
Made a sacrifice
With her fingers crossed she jumps off the cliff tonight

Come see Sarah setting course now
Flying shards will cut her sails down

She is almost there
A change is in the air
Don't hold your tongue for me
When she dies, I'm free
