

fading away

Nemo

Will I ever come back home?
Will I ever come back home?
Will I ever come back home?
Will I-

It's so lonely on the West Coast
Fifth day, I'm eating pesto
I wish that I could get going
But I'm fading away
My mood just hit new low
Listening to "Yellow"
I wish that I could get going, but

Nothing's ever changing
Why's it never raining?
Spending all my time
Always thinking 'bout the same things
Slowly going crazy
Why's it never raining?
I feel like I'm broken
I feel like I'm fading

Fading away
Fading away

I don't remember why I'm so sad
'Til I remember what I don't have
That's when I wanna go back
I'm fading away
I wish that I could feel bad
But I can't feel anything right now
Maybe I should call dad, huh

Nothing's ever changing
Why's it never raining?
Spending all my time
Always thinking bout the same things
Slowly going crazy
Why's it never raining?
I feel like I'm broken
I feel like I'm fading

Fading away
Fading away
I'm fading away
I'm fading away, ayy, ayy

Will I ever come back home?
Will I ever come back home?
