

One More Shot

Nemo

You'll always go down as my worst crime
Knew you're bad news since the first time
I've been drinking, seeing blurred lines
Got me spinning around like a turbine
Now you got me in the chokehold
And on my knees getting so cold
At a party down in Soho
When it all goes in slow mo

Well, hello, my old friend, tell me how have you been
Said a million goodbyes but you're back creeping in
Right under my skin

'Cause all it takes is one more shot
I gave you everything I got
But you keep taking, breaking, aching hearts
All it takes is one more shot
I gave you everything I got
But you keep taking, breaking, aching hearts

Yeah

You always come back at the worst time like, hell, here I am
Always do me with some new shit, 'cause you know that you can
I'm so vulnerable, barely lovable, so damn comfortable
Not recoverable, darling, comfortable
Shit

Well, hello, my old friend, I can feel you within
Right under my skin

'Cause all it takes is one more shot
I gave you everything I got
But you keep taking, breaking, aching hearts
All it takes is one more shot
I gave you everything I got
But you keep taking, breaking, aching hearts

You're a thrill, but you're a killer
One more shot, and I'll be lying [?] on the floor
Can we act like it's the last time?
One more shot and then I'll shut the door

All it takes is one more shot
I gave you everything I got
But you keep taking, breaking, aching hearts
All it takes is one more shot
I gave you everything I got
But you keep taking, breaking, aching hearts
