

Unexplainable

Nemo

I can't explain the way I feel
Whatever happens in my mind
I never know if it's real
Can a feeling be a lie?
I rarely understand my thoughts
I write them down before I sleep
But I'm exactly where I was
Every time I take a read

Ooh where do we go
I reckon it all makes sense somewhere somehow
But ooh how will I know
What If I'm unexplainable?

I can't explain the way I feel
The answer's somewhere out of reach
I meet a friend we share a meal
We're saying words but we don't speak

Another day has flown by
I still don't know what it all means
I go to bed I close my eyes
And I'm a woman in my dreams

Ooh where do we go
I reckon it all makes sense somewhere somehow
But ooh how will I know
What If I'm unexplainable?

Ooh where do we go
I reckon it all makes sense somewhere somehow
But ooh how will I know
What If I'm unexplainable?

Ooh where do we go
When we close our eyes
Seems I spend all my days
Waiting for the night

Ooh where do we go
I'll tell you when I'm there
Just let me fall asleep
And turn back into her

Where
Do we go
Do we go
Do we go
Where
Do we go
Do we go
Do we go
Where
Do we go
Do we go
Do we go
Ooh how I would I know

I 'm unexplainable
