Yo
I just couldn't commit
Love was there didn't want to admit
Them hoes ain't got my heart they wish
Was you I'm tryna be with
Now you blow my phone up talking shit
Aye
I just couldn't commit
Love was there didn't want to admit
Them hoes ain't got my heart they wish
Was you I'm tryna be with
Now you blow my phone up talking shit

Caught me cheating
Proof was there man had to leave it
Broke your heart, now the tension heated, time apart, that space was needed
Sweet one way deeper than a beating
Hoes ain't shit fam what is the meaning?
Back then, I ain't have dough I would lie about that but now you know
Back then, I gave you my last
That whole week I was laying low
Now I can pattern myself
And take you out and buy you clothes
All this shit I kept inside
My pride just telling me go with the flow
(My pride just telling me go with the -)
She insecure but I don't know what for 10/10 and the body raw
Yo
I just wasn't sure
Got me thinking there ain't no cure
I just wasn't sure
Got me thinking there ain't no

Yo
I just couldn't commit
Love was there didn't want to admit
Them hoes ain't got my heart they wish
Was you I'm tryna be with
Now you blow my phone up talking shit

Them hoes ain't got my heart they wish

Rekindle, safe to say that nothings changed
Paved the way secure the bag
Secure the bag, my price got raised
Gyal want me that stayed the same
Difference is I'm not that fazed
Who's my gyal? That ain't your business
That ting slow, catch up on the fitness
She bad, God is my witness
Blasian eyes and a whole lot of thickness
Quiet outside, inside she vicious

Peering my phone like I'm suspicious
Hard on herself she too ambitious

I just couldn't commit
Love was there didn't want to admit
Them hoes ain't got my heart they wish
Was you I'm tryna be with
Now you blow my phone up talking shit
Aye
