Come from broken families
Come from broken homes
Chasing all them bands I ain't chasing hoes
I ain't ever backing down, I stay ten toes
If you playing games then I gotta go
Come from broken families
Come from broken homes
Chasing all them bands I ain't chasing hoes
I ain't ever backing down, I stay ten toes
If you playing games then I gotta go
Yeah

I need armed bands I'm in the deep end
Everybody say they love me but they pretend
I don't get no sleep I'm grinding every weekend
If I'm eating then you eating, man I feed them
All her exes broke her heart but she a real one
Them OGs reckless they won't hesitate to drill one
Feel sad but all this pain I won't reveal none
Feel sad but all this pain I won't reveal none
Yeah
I won't reveal none
Yeah
I won't reveal none
All this pain I won't reveal none
It's like scars I can't, heal none
Told broski get the money and just flip like that Flopped in school now he's out, now he's hitting the trap
I ain't switched on my guys real talk that's facts

Yeah
Come from broken families
Come from broken homes
Chasing all them bands I ain't chasing hoes
I ain't ever backing down, I stay ten toes
If you playing games then I gotta go
Come from broken families
Come from broken homes
Chasing all them bands I ain't chasing hoes
I ain't ever backing down, I stay ten toes
If you playing games then I gotta go
Yeah yeah

They fake but claim they real I be like yeah yeah
They say they got my back I be like yeah yeah
Hungry for the money, big belly
Everybody only bad up on the Telly
I know who got my back, don't need to tell me

When this fame takes off, don't need to bell me
Yeah, when it takes off

Yeah
Come from broken families
Come from broken homes
Chasing all them bands I ain't chasing hoes
I ain't ever backing down, I stay ten toes
If you playing games then I gotta go
Come from broken families
Come from broken homes
Chasing all them bands I ain't chasing hoes
I ain't ever backing down, I stay ten toes
If you playing games then I gotta go
Yeah yeah
(Broken homes)
(Yeah yeah, yeah yeah yeah)
(Broken homes)
(Yeah, yeah yeah yeah)
