

REFLECTION

Nemzzz

(ZEL, this shit crazy)

(And it's pronounced like this, "Son d'hommage, son d'hommage")

Ayy, yo

Them man stay postin' quotes, but in real life, ain't doin' a thing

Them gyal look good on IG, in real life, don't look the same

My opinion does not need a reply, I'm just here to vent, okay?

I told all you man, "Yes", but really I should've been like, "No"

I might not motivate no one, just at least give man hope
I don't trust no one, 'cause where were you at when I was tryna get dough?

You man lie way more than gyal, it's mad, I don't know who's real

I still got goals I ain't hit just yet, not clear, I don't know how it feels

God forbid, if I die today, beg friend people in the church
Real one turnin' into a ho, I guess you don't know your worth
But I just read between all the lines, you know where you heard it first

Lie to yourself or lose yourself, me, I don't know what's worse
More time, I'm deepin' life, but how can I when I stay in this shit?

I'm lookin' at kettles and whips and you man sat there talkin'
shit

Yo, you ain't got no motion, we the ones runnin' it up
This track ain't for me to flex, I'm just here to vent, okay?
Get man down and go do time for you, no way
You know my situation like this, girl still wanna play
Temptations all around, before I act, gotta think about
I wanna be like, "Okay, I trust you, but I got so much doubt"

Them man stay postin' quotes, but in real life ain't doin' a thing

Them gyal look good on IG, in real life don't look the same

My opinion does not need a reply, I'm just here to vent, okay?

I told all you man, "Yes", but really I should've been like, "No"

Them man stay postin' quotes, but in real life ain't doin' a thing

Them gyal look good on IG, in real life don't look the same

My opinion does not need a reply, I'm just here to vent, okay?

I told all you man, "Yes", but really I should've been like, "No"
