

Bad Dreams

Neon Trees

It's 2:00 A.M. and the city is sound asleep
But the scene keeps playing to the groove of my heartbeat

In real life, I would stutter
With you in technicolor
At 2:00 A.M., in my head, we're bound to meet

I don't want anyone to wake me up
I fall asleep, it's never been so fun
I know it's wrong, but it's true
I like the things that we do in my
Bad dreams, bad dreams
Bad dreams, bad dreams

Bad dreams

I'm still on stage, and you're watching me count the stars
Then I eat you up like milk and lucky charms

In real life, I'd be patient
Fantasy adjacent
So I indulge the sum to see the parts
(Fuck you, I love you, I need you)

I don't want anyone to wake me up
I fall asleep, it's never been so fun
I know it's wrong, but it's true
I like the things that we do in my
Bad dreams, bad dreams
Bad dreams, bad dreams

Bad dreams

Live the sin in R.E.M.
And do it all again

I don't want anyone to wake me up
I fall asleep, it's never been so fun
I know it's wrong, but it's true
I like the things that we do in my
Bad dreams, bad dreams
Bad dreams, bad dreams

I don't want anyone to wake me up (Wake me up)
I fall asleep, it's never been so fun
I know it's wrong, but it's true
I like the things that we do in my
Bad dreams, bad dreams
Bad dreams, bad dreams

I know it's wrong, but it's true
I like the things that we do in my
Bad dreams, bad dreams
Bad dreams, bad dreams
