Favorite Daze

Neon Trees

Aren't you tired of parties full of people you don't know?
Meet me in the bathroom, I got something to tell you
I feel like a different version of myself
Took me far from Heaven, drove me straight through Hell

Thirty-seven bender, drugs are overrated
So is feeling shitty 'bout the shit things I said
Don't believe in God, not in the typical sense
I still got a feeling that it's more complex

Learning to stay conscious is a torrid affair
Yeah, I gotta tell you

You're my favorite daze of the week
I get so weak when you speak
We're way too young to give it up
I thought I wasn't gonna get through it
You're my favorite daze of the week
I get so freaked on my feet
We're way too young to give it up
I thought I wasn't gonna get through it

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You're my favorite daze of the week (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You're my favorite daze of the week (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

He's a gutter poet that I dream to sleep with
I could stare at pictures of him all damn weekend
Codependent themes are a recurrent eclipse
Justify my love or get the fuck off my dick

Is this really it or are there things I don't know?
Cultural decisions keep on changing my flow
I think we should hang a bit and recharge the vibe
Didn't you get sick of all the lies from the tribe?

And I could keep my distance, it's a matter of time
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

You're my favorite daze of the week
I get so weak when you speak
We're way too young to give it up
I thought I wasn't gonna get through it
You're my favorite daze of the week
I get so freaked on my feet
We're way too young to give it up
I thought I wasn't gonna get through it

Thought I wasn't gonna get through it
Yeah, I gotta tell you

You're my favorite daze of the week
I get so weak when you speak
We're way too young to give it up
I thought I wasn't gonna get through it
