

Going Through Something

Neon Trees

Lost

I've been trapped in my own thoughts
Lately, we're not feeling on
I woke up and summer's gone
So where the hell are we goin'? (Oh)

I just always wanted you to be my life saver
You calmed me down, I fucked it up 'cause I'm a risk taker, oh

I think I'm going through something
All I know, all I know is tonight I got nothing
I'm not going home
When I drink alcohol, I'm happier
But I know it's gonna kill me dead
I think I'm going through something
Think I'm going through something

We don't talk

We're just sweeping it all under the rug
And lately, we're not having fun
I woke up and winter's done
So where the hell are we goin'?

I just always wanted you to be my life saver
You calmed me down, I fucked it up 'cause I'm a risk taker, oh

I think I'm going through something
All I know, all I know is tonight I got nothing
I'm not going home
When I drink alcohol, I'm happier
But I know it's gonna kill me dead
I think I'm going through something
Think I'm going through something, something

You, you, you
Finding out something new
Things we used to do now we don't do
Never be like you, you, you
Everything got confused
That's just some excuse that I use to
You, you, you
Finding out something new
Things we used to do now we don't do
Never be like you, you, you
Everything got confused
That's just some excuse that I use to (Oh)

I think I'm going through something (Nah)
All I know, all I know is tonight I got nothing
I'm not going home
When I drink alcohol, I'm happier
But I know it's gonna kill me dead
I think I'm going through something
Think I'm going through something, something

All I know, all I know is tonight I got nothing
(Finding out something new)

Think I'm going through something
Think I'm going through something, something (Yeah)
(Everything got confused)
All I know, all I know is tonight I got nothing (All I know)
(Finding out something new)
Think I'm going through something
Think I'm going through something, something
Never be like you
Everything got confused
That's just some excuse that I use to
Never be like you
Finding out something new
Things we used to do now we don't do
