NERIAH

Delilah said life didn't go as she planned
She said "Oh, what I'd give to have just one more chance"
Filled up a pool with my tears that I could swim in Too young to die, but I didn't like the life I was living

Maybe that's why I changed, didn't like who I became
I was crying and lying in my room on my bedframe
Trying to feel like a kid

But it's not 2008
I've grown up, made 2000 mistakes
I've been through my worst heartbreak
And it taught me
That people, they can really change
And you taught me how to grow from the pain
Let's take it back to our good days
I'm still living in 2008

Delilah said she wished she was more like them
She said "I wish I had someone who called me a friend"
Too many people that didn't see me for myself
Too many moments I didn't say what I really felt

Maybe that's why I changed, didn't like who I became
I was crying and lying in my room on my bedframe
Trying to feel like a kid

But it's not 2008
I've grown up, made 2000 mistakes

There's gonna be times in your life
Where you feel like you've hit rockbottom
And you may feel alone
And no one knows what the future holds
But everyone goes through it at some point
You'll only have to go up
That's what's so beautiful about it
I'll let know you I get there
