Even If It Hurts

NERIAH

I made a whole list
Like maybe he'll change
Get better with age
Don't doubt it

All of the what if's
Echoed in my brain
What if I go insane
Without him

So I, swore we were different, fighting in the kitchen
Out of my mind, now it's not your business
Who the hell I'm kissing

Sometimes you gotta learn to leave
Even if it hurts
Gotta pack your bags, close the door first
Build a brand-new world when something don't work
And let the old one burn
Even if it hurts
Hurts hurts hurts
Hurts hurts hurts hurts
Hurts hurts hurts hurts
Even if it hurts
If it even hurts

Thought I was happy
Confused it with pain
Not really what I imagined
Without you around me
There's no dirty plates
Nobody calling me names
Out of habit

So I, swore we were different, fighting in the kitchen
Out of my mind, now it's not your business
Who the hell I'm kissing

Sometimes you gotta learn to leave
Even if it hurts
Gotta pack your bags, close the door first
Build a brand-new world when something don't work
And let the old one burn
Even if it hurts
Hurts hurts hurts
Hurts hurts hurts hurts
Hurts hurts hurts hurts
Even if it hurts
If it even hurts

I got tired of counting your excuses
And the bruises on my heart
Turns out there not too much I'm losing
Who knew it

Sometimes you gotta learn to leave
Even if it hurts

Gotta pack your bags, close the door first

Sometimes you gotta learn to leave
Even if it hurts
Gotta pack your bags, close the door first
Even if it hurts
Hurts hurts hurts
Hurts hurts hurts hurts
Even if it hurts
If it even hurts
