

Good Enough

NERIAH

Am I good enough

Who will I be today I can't decide
Let's roll the dice, maybe
I'll finally be someone who gets it right
Oh, wouldn't that be nice, we'll see

I'm just a carbon copy of someone who seems happy
I'm a chameleon, baby, I'll change until you want me
I'm just another body who wants to be somebody

How will I know if I'm good enough
Is it something you feel or that you make up
How can I tell when I'm good enough
All I wanna be when I grow up is good enough
Tell me when I'm good enough

What will tomorrow bring as my disguise
It's a surprise, show me
How to be what people will like
I'm breaking my back with every try
I don't understand, I'm losing my mind

I'm just a carbon copy of someone who seems happy
I'm a chameleon, baby, I'll change until you want me
I'm just another body who wants to be somebody

How will I know if I'm good enough
Is it something you feel or that you make up
How can I tell when I'm good enough
All I wanna be when I grow up is good enough
Tell me when I'm good enough

Am I good enough
Tell me when I'm good enough
Am I good enough
