

Missing Somebody

NERIAH

Do you still leave your curtains open?
Do you still sleep in 'til noon?
I miss you and your sisters footsteps
When she ran into your room
She's probably six by now
And your little brother just turned two
And you probably think about my siblings too

We don't feel the same things
But you understood me
Whenever I was sad about my family
You were sad 'bout yours too
No one knows me like you
And that's why I still miss you
I fell in love with an idea that wasn't you

You're just a guy I thought was my type
I thought I could have you back in my life
But I'm cautious, scared to be honest
I don't recommend trying to be friends
You won't put me first
And that's just your curse
I miss you
And now I'm missing someone I never knew

When I needed an emergency contact
I always put you, cause you were the one that I called
But now the calls aren't going through
You used to be my everything
Now I haven't talked to you since June
And I'd like to think your family missed me too

We don't feel the same things
But you understood me
Whenever I was sad about my family
You were sad 'bout yours too
No one knows me like you
And that's why I still miss you
I fell in love with an idea that wasn't you

You're just a guy I thought was my type
I thought I could have you back in my life
But I'm cautious, scared to be honest
I don't recommend trying to be friends
You won't put me first
And that's just your curse
I miss you
And now I'm missing someone I never knew

When it comes to us you don't want to Love me the way I loved you
And it's not something I'm used to 'cause

You're just a guy I thought was my type
I thought I could have you back in my life
But I'm cautious, scared to be honest
You're just a guy I thought was my type

I thought I could have you back in my life
But I'm cautious, scared to be honest
I don't recommend trying to be friends
You won't put me first
And that's just your curse
I miss you
And now I'm missing someone I never knew
