

No One Cries Forever

NERIAH

Did I just break, break a new record?
'Cause I've been cryin' about you and it feels like for-fuckin'-ever
I tried to fake, fake it all better
But days turn to months turn to years and I'm stuck in Septembe r

When you said you loved me
You were never good at it
Good at it
It's me, myself, and lonely
Missin' you is my bad habit
And I'm so good at it

Why am I still cryin'? There's no silver linin'
Time to say goodbye 'cause nothin' lasts forever
Feelings gotta die and hearts always survive, yeah
Tears, they have to dry 'cause no one cries forever
No one cries

I think I'm okay, yeah, okay for a minute
But those sixty seconds run out and then I'm right back in it, yeah
How long will I wait? I don't think there's a limit
'Cause I would've been movin' on, but we both know I didn't

Why am I still cryin'? There's no silver linin'
Time to say goodbye 'cause nothin' lasts forever
Feelings gotta die and hearts always survive, yeah
Tears, they have to dry 'cause no one cries forever
No one cries

No one cries, no one cries, tell me
No one cries, no one cries forever
No one cries, no one cries, tell me
No one cries, no one cries forever

Why am I still cryin'? There's no silver linin'
Time to say goodbye 'cause nothin' lasts forever
Feelings gotta die and hearts always survive
And tears, they have to dry 'cause no one cries forever

But maybe I will
Maybe I will
