

Sammy

NERIAH

Mmm, mmm, mmm, mmmm
(This one's for you, Sammy)

We spent two years being each other's backgrounds
Yeah (Yuck)
Every time I picked up my phone
I felt like I was home
Cause in the photo we were sitting in your court yard
(That's super important for her)
I can still smell your cologne
You took yours so I bought my own

Have you change the background of your phone
Or does nobody still know that
We broke up two weeks ago, weeks ago
Is my birthday still the passcode of your phone
3-1-5-0 No, No!
I'm doing it!
I'm doing it!
I'm doing it again!
Doing it again!

Cause, last night I danced at the party to our song
With somebody else beside you
Cause, you're with that girl who
Looks just like me
I know her, name is Sammy, my old friend
Now I'm numbly saying goodbye to our song (goodbye)
Feels just like you

I drove myself home
Cause I knew you weren't sleeping alone
(Oh you were home with Sammy again)
I hope she treats you right
Not just on Friday nights
But I know you
You'll leave her, that is your issue
(You're really good at that)
You'll get bored if she is nice
Have fun paying the price

Have you change the background of your phone
Or does nobody still know that
We broke up two weeks ago, weeks ago
Is my birthday still the passcode of your phone
3-1-5-0 No, no!
I'm doing it!
I'm doing it!
I'm doing it again!
Doing it again!

Cause, last night I danced at the party to our song
With somebody else beside you
Cause, you're with that girl who
Looks just like me
I know her, name is Sammy, my old friend
Now I'm numbly saying goodbye to our song (goodbye)

Feels just like you

Hey you, uh, looks like you might've been at that party last night
I know you saw me and Sammy
Umm I'm sorry, I hope there's no hard feelings
Happy birthday by the way, I love you
