

Shoulda, Coulda, Didn't

NERIAH

It's like when you're a kid and you lose the game
The game you only know and understand when it's explained
That's how I used to feel when someone said your name
But I grew out of you causin' me pain

Woah, woah
Guess I pictured us different
Woah, woah, oh
Maybe it'd be different

If you kissed me goodnight on my head
I would miss it, but you didn't
And every time you swore on your life
You were lyin', so how are you livin'?
Oh, I cried at every party
Oh, screamin' doesn't mean sorry
If you gave me a reason to love you, I'd love you
But you shoulda, coulda, didn't

Stopped seein' you in clouds of just-lit cigarettes
And in the faceless people that I walk by on the street
I met somebody else, I'm really happy now
So I wish you well, but you're still goin' to Hell

Woah, woah
Guess I pictured us different
Woah, woah, oh
Maybe it'd be different

If you kissed me goodnight on my head
I would miss it, but you didn't
And every time you swore on your life
You were lyin', so how are you livin'?
Oh, I cried at every party
Oh, screamin' doesn't mean sorry
If you gave me a reason to love you, I'd love you
But you shoulda, coulda, didn't

I missed you for so long
But now missin' you just feels wrong
Don't remember how I got here
But I'm here, I'm still here

If you kissed me goodnight on my head
I would miss it, but you didn't
And every time you swore on your life
You were lyin', so how are you still livin'?
Oh, I cried at every party
Oh, screamin' doesn't mean sorry
If you gave me a reason to love you, I'd love you
But you shoulda, coulda, didn't
