

Thank You

NERIAH

Ay, ay

If the old me saw the new me in the mirror
Would she be happy or try to wipe it cleaner too?
The way you would do
If the old me knew how you were gonna treat her
She would have left 'cause she found a reason to love someone new

Doesn't wake me up and loves when I sleep in
Makes my bed when he know I'm leaving soon like I did for you
Doesn't blast my phone when I'm gone for the weekend
Tells me to have fun, that he'll see me soon, not what you would do
But I'm still gonna thank you

Being the guy that I don't want
Showing me how to be treated wrong
Making me know when love's not right
Wasting my time with stupid fights
Showing me what I don't deserve
Knowing it can't get any worse
Now it's not something I'm used to
So thank you

Thank you, thank you

When I stopped being the girl in the mirror
Who went to sleep wishing she was prettier
Who gave her all to you
But she still does have days that she can never tell
If she loves herself

Doesn't wake me up and loves when I sleep in
Makes my bed when he know I'm leaving soon like I did for you
Doesn't blast my phone when I'm gone for the weekend
Tells me to have fun, that he'll see me soon, not what you would do
But I'm still gonna thank you

Being the guy that I don't want
Showing me how to be treated wrong
Making me know when love's not right
Wasting my time with stupid fights
Showing me what I don't deserve
Knowing it can't get any worse
Now it's not something I'm used to
So thank you

I know it's never gonna be the same way with me and you
But that is cause I really never even wanted to Instead I'm saying thank you

Being the guy that I don't want
Showing me how to be treated wrong
Making me know when love's not right
Wasting my time with stupid fights
Showing me what I don't deserve
Knowing it can't get any worse
Now it's not something I'm used to

So thank you

Thank you, thank you
