

This Is How The World Made Me

NERIAH

Eyy, ahh, ahh

Is it bad that you're in my bed
While I'm picturing you with someone else instead
We were good babe, too good for me
Now I'm wishing part of you would treat me badly

Fights seem pretty fun
But maybe that's 'cause we've never even had one
I miss feeling young
'Cause now you got me suffocated I've had enough

When you tell me you'd wait for me forever
I used to love that but now it makes me bitter
So I'm sorry, that's just how this world made me
My heart's guarded, I wish that I could change it
But I'm sensitive, impatient and I hate it
Way too many guys I never should have dated
Comparing myself on a regular basis
But it's fine, I'm fine
So if you go love somebody else
Please make sure they love themselves
If you go love somebody else
Please make sure they love themselves

Ahh, ahh

Are you mad I sing it out loud?
Instead of telling you under the covers
Do you wonder how we let it
Get this far, turned best friends to ex-lovers

Fights seem pretty fun
But maybe that's cause we've never even had one
I miss feeling young
'Cause now you got me suffocated I've had enough

When you tell me you'd wait for me forever
I used to love that but now it makes me bitter
So I'm sorry, that's just how this world made me
My heart's guarded, I wish that I could change it
But I'm sensitive, impatient and I hate it
Way too many guys I never should have dated
Comparing myself on a regular basis
But it's fine, I'm fine
So if you go love somebody else
Please make sure they love themselves
If you go love somebody else
Please make sure they love themselves

Ahh, ahh
Please make sure they love themselves
If you go love somebody else, somebody else
