

Call Your Momma

Nerina Pallot

Lay the sunshine down upon you
May you always have enough
May I have someone run to
May you always know your love

All in love and war is fair
Only flesh and blood is man
Go now, say a little prayer
And call your mama while you can

Go set aside a difference
Beg 'em to forgive
Blood is thicker than water
And the reason that we live

Death is thick, nobody's there
Oh, God, don't wanna hold your hand
Jesus, I was saying prayers, so you
Call your mama while you can

Call your mama
Call your mama
Call your mama
Hmm, go call your mama
Call your mama
Call your mama
Call your mama, oh
Call your mama

Lay the sunshine down upon you
May you always have enough
In this world of mortal joy
You're gonna lose someone you love

All in love and war is fair
Only flesh and blood is man
Go now, say a little prayer
And call your mama while you can

Go now, say a little prayer
And call your mama while you can
Go now, say a little prayer
And call your mama while you can
