

Wolf & I

Nerina Pallot

I dream of a song from 1981
When I lay me down to sleep
Oh it scares me so, and when I awake
I pray it don't happen to me

Soon there will be a change
Things will never be the same
And he calls for me
The moon and the tiger for company
And all through the night
The wolf and I
All through the night
The wolf and I
And as god be my witness, he's mine

In the blindness of the dark
His heart beats with mine
But no one, no one can hear
It's a lonely love
Will it ever be enough
To keep him, keep him near?

Soon there will be a change
Things will never be the same
And he calls for me
The moon and the tiger for company
And all through the night
The wolf and I
All through the night
The wolf and I
And as god be my witness, he's mine

Soon there will be a change
Things will never be the same
And he calls to me
The moon and the tiger for company
And all through the night
It's the wolf and I
All through the night
The wolf and I
All through the night
It's the wolf and I
All through the night
It's the wolf and I
And as god be my witness, he's mine

I dream of a song from 1981
When I lay me down to sleep
Oh it scares me so, its skeleton key
I pray it don't happen to me
