

Renegade

Nero

What did you believe you'd found out?
It all begins when we get afraid
Why do you believe it now?
It's just the whims of a renegade
'Cause you think we'll all let it go
And now you buy your own lie
But now you've lost all credibility
Now you're just the enemy

But now you've lost all credibility
Now you're just the enemy

Now you're just the enemy

What did you believe you'd found out?
It all begins when we get afraid
Why do you believe it now?
It's just the whims of a renegade
'Cause you think we'll all let it go
And now you buy your own lie
But now you've lost all credibility
Now you're just the enemy

But now you've lost all credibility
Now you're just the enemy

What did you believe you'd found out?
It all begins when we get afraid
Why do you believe it now?
It's just the whims of a renegade
'Cause you think we'll all let it go
And now you buy your own lie
But now you've lost all credibility
Now you're just the enemy
