

Hurt

NERVO

A paper heart in pieces
Two blurry lines to vague to follow
I really thought we did our best
We had our time
Through all the mess
But in the end it's useless

I didn't mean to hurt
I really didn't mean to hurt you
I didn't mean to hurt
I really didn't meant to hurt you
I didn't meant to hurt

The winter storm is so cold
The quiet air can leave me wondering
I'm all alone, alone again
And now I want to call you my friend
But would it help if I did?

I didn't mean to hurt
I really didn't mean to hurt you
I didn't mean to hurt
I really didn't meant to hurt you
I didn't meant to hurt
I really didn't mean to hurt you

In this Nordic air the nights are darker
Breaks my heart to see you struggle
Now we need to feel the sun go down

I didn't mean to hurt
I really didn't mean to hurt you
I didn't mean to hurt
I really didn't meant to hurt you
I didn't meant to hurt
I really didn't mean to hurt you
