

Sober

NERVO

I say I take a chance
I fight for you, make bigger plans
There's nothing here scares me like the truth
But then you let me down
You built me up to wear your crown
And left me in the land I didn't choose no no

'Cause nothing makes me sober like you again
Nothing pulls me under like you pay
So come and break my heart all over again
'Cause nothing makes me sober like you again

Like you again
Like you again
Like you again

There's nothing and never is
But somehow it goes down like this
I never wanna see your face again
So don't, don't call me baby
It's not my name not yours to take
I wonder if I'll ever heal this pain

'Cause nothing makes me sober like you again
Nothing pulls me under like you pay
So come and break my heart all over again
'Cause nothing makes me sober like you again

Sober, sober
Over, so over
Sober, got me sober
Over, it's over
Sober, got me sober

So come and break my heart all over again
'Cause nothing makes me, nothing makes me, nothing makes me sob
