

hell is a teenage girl

Nessa Barrett

You're barely a woman, and they call you a whore
Say that you're ruined, when you pass 24
I'm too sensitive, when I start to cry
But I'm a cold-hearted, uptight bitch when I keep it inside

I'm just a baby, ah
But they try to slut shame me, ah
It's your fault I'm crazy
Yeah, that's what you made me
Say my looks can kill, this time they will

It might be a man's world
It might be a man's world
It might be a man's world
But I'll watch it burn
Hell is a teenage girl

Will you still think I'm pretty, when I come back to bite?
When I'm screaming like a siren in the middle of the night?
When I unleash the storm just 'cause I'm bored?
If you're not scared of me, then what's this prison for?

It might be a man's world
It might be a man's world
It might be a man's world
But I'll watch it burn
Hell is a teenage girl

We're delicate and dangerous
You should be afraid of us, ah
We're delicate and dangerous
You should be afraid of us, ah

It might be a man's world
It might be a man's world
It might be a man's world
Burn baby burn
Hell is a teenage girl
