

Come Home

Nessly

Send me the addy
Send me the city
Be on my next fly
I'm goin to Indy
And I need you
I don't need to be independent
I need your kisses
Cuz
I hate being alone
So baby come home
Yeah cuz I need you
Yeah and you need me (true)
I hate being alone
Home alone
Baby we grown
So baby come home
Baby come home

Tell me the addy
Yeah and tell me the price
I'm paying for your taxi
Come home tonight
Baby I'm done being nice (yeah)

So baby come home (I need you)
I hate being alone
So tell me the price
I'll pay for that flight
If you come home
Baby come home

Lil mama got a bottle shape coca cola
Left me alone, I'm Colorado cold
Brown skin lil ting like toblerone
Chanel blue all over my cologne
I don't do savauge
I'm not like these rappers babe
The diamonds a disguise
I ain't know you had a twin
That shit caught me by surprise
I just want to have you both in a Minage
All this ice a habitat for a polar bear
I can turn two into a four I practice culinary
I know who I am, I know who he ain't
Never said I was a saint
Lil mama treat me like the son of Mary
Two twin lambs my baby want a pink one
G-65, interior a brinks truck
If you can't make it multiply,
Then I don't want to link up
Two cups full of pink stuff
Car came with the pink stub, yeah
