First I changed my hair color, then I changed my phone number, yeah
Got a new girlfriend right in time for summer, ooh yeah
They said I switched up, this really me
They said I switched up, they never knew me
They said I switched up, this really me
They said I switched up, they never knew me

Yeah, you ain't really gang if you feel forgotten
Yeah, I be with my gang like Batman and Robin, yeah

I poured up the gang, I hope lay no option, yeah
John got the jugs from a Guatamalan, yeah
And he wrapt them bricks tight like two in common
Yeah, fake day ones got my number, hit me on the DM, yeah
They scared I'm going one direction, I ain't even Liam, yeah
They say they remember me from back in the day
Let's leave it back in the day
I just got back to LA
I hit KP on FaceTime like, "Wait"

First I changed my hair color, then I changed my phone number, yeah
Got a new girlfriend right in time for summer, ooh yeah

They say I switched up, that's a guarantee
Gotta do it big so I'm lookin' overseas
Got my mom a crib and I got her brand new teeth
Hope you little hoes know that shit wasn't cheap
Stand up on the sidewalk if you isn't street
Find a way to leave, can't be stuck, you ain't a tree
People get upset when I started making moves
Kept my eye open for the Shitty in the crew
Never lost my hustle, and I'm dying my hair blue (RIP)
Got my bars up, hit up Nessly for the tune (Yeah)
Used to always wanna be the realest in the room
Now I see the realest only gets an early tomb

First I changed my hair color, then I changed my phone number, yeah
Got a new girlfriend right in time for summer, ooh yeah
They said I switched up, this really me
They said I switched up, they never knew me
They said I switched up, this really me
They said I switched up, they never knew me

First I changed my hair color, then I changed my phone number, yeah
