Please keep my baby regular
Lord, keep my baby regular

I don't wanna take you away from all of your dreams
But I don't want nothing to take you from me

I know it might seem selfish of me
Know my love contradicts all your beliefs

So ya boy dreamin', kept the change right?
We been talkin' for 2 months, I can't get your name right
Watch the bungee poppin', I fell
Alone at 4 AM, 4 times in a row, felt like hell, ohh you got it
You said it's only business, unplug them headphones, he callin'
The fuck that supposed to mean to me? I know that nigga want you
Tryna tell me I don't love you, I don't wanna hear that shit
Gotta renew my passport just to give you some dick

Please keep my baby regular
Lord, keep my baby regular

I don't wanna take you away from all of your dreams

I used to scan for my flights, I'm 20, 000 in debt
I need a new life of customs, you always seem to forget
I see you more than my mama, I gotta call her collect
You really got a nerve to say that I'm an emotional wreck
You remember when G.O.O.D tried to sign me, I damn near left you for dead
Until I get peace of mind, everyone poses a threat
I know the tables will turn, those thoughts gon' ruin my head
I think to hard when I drive so I flew it instead, yeah

Please keep my baby regular
