

Ultraviolet

Nest

Tell me I'm not mistaken
Talk to me
Cause I don't seem to understand
The way you see
So you sold me the copyright to your lies, and you
Pulled your words over my eyes
But I see things in a different light

And I, I see the light that you don't see, but you
Don't believe I, don't believe I got it
The color's there if you let it be, but you
Don't believe I, don't believe I got it
Don't be afraid of what you see
You don't believe I, don't believe I
I got it, it's ultraviolet.

You tried your best to save me
But now you know
You don't need to hold my hand
And lead the way
Well you sold me a second-hand disguise, and you
Showed me the colors through your eyes
But they're only black and white

And I, I see the light that you don't see, but you
Don't believe I, don't believe I got it
The color's there if you let it be, but you
Don't believe I, don't believe I got it,
Don't be afraid of what you see
You don't believe I, don't believe I?

I got it, and it's ultraviolet
The confusion of sunlight
Is fading away
On the sun-spotted airfields
On the violet runways
