

Stone Cold Eyes

Nestor

She might appear like
The girl next door
So sweet so clever
Her subtle charm
Will fool you in the light of day
And after midnight
She gets dolled up
In lace and leather
And she'll do harm
To any man who comes her way

She's hiding all her secrets well
You almost could not tell

She's a killer on the loose
She will pick and chose
The next heart in line
She will hunt you just for fun
Get you on the run
What she can't disguise
Is her stone cold eyes
Stone cold eyes

She wheels you in with
A perfect smile
A face of an angel
And for a minute
You think she must be heaven sent

She might just show up anywhere
So any man beware

She's a killer on the loose
She will pick and chose
The next heart in line
She will hunt you just for fun
Get you on the run
What she can't disguise
Is her stone cold eyes

Killer on the loose
She will pick and chose

Hunt you just for fun
Get you on the run

She's a killer on the loose
She will pick and chose
The next heart in line
She will hunt you just for fun
Get you on the run
What she can't disguise
Is her stone cold eyes
