

Hell In High Heels

Netsky

On the days when the world's
One, two bricks from coming down
I'll be the shelter
When the heavens fall upon you
On the days, thunder clouds
Come grey and follow you around
I'll take the tears out
From your eyes and wash the sky blue

Be the light in a tunnel, be a star babe
Through the lows and the heaviest of heartache
Take a nine to the chest, give it all up babe

Watch me walk through hell in high heels for you
Make an offer to the devil that he can't refuse
In the name of love, I'd go to war for you
Yes, I'd walk through hell in high heels for you

Watch me walk through hell in high heels for you
Make an offer to the devil that he can't refuse
In the name of love, I'd go to war for you
Yes, I'd walk through hell in high heels for you

On the days where the road
Never leads you close to home
I will carve out of the earth
A path to guide you

Be the light in a tunnel, be a star babe
Through the lows and the heaviest of heartache
Take a nine to the chest, give it all up babe

Watch me walk through hell in high heels for you
Make an offer to the devil that he can't refuse
In the name of love, I'd go to war for you
Yes, I'd walk through hell in high heels for you

Watch me walk through hell in high heels for you
Make an offer to the devil that he can't refuse
In the name of love, I'd go to war for you
Yes, I'd walk through hell in high heels for you
