

A Moment Lost

Neurotech

So cold
Despising destination
These walls divide

So cold
Implying our temptation
Tired eyes don't lie

Tonight
I'm tired of breaking
Two worlds apart
Even though in the light of day
I've lost my heart
I'm tired of waking
The both of us
It's just a moment we have lost
Tonight

So close
Departing our frustrations
These walls confide

So close
Denying expectations
With tied arms entwined

Tonight
I'm tired of breaking
Two worlds apart
Even though in the light of day
I've lost my heart
I'm tired of waking
The both of us
It's just a moment we have lost
Tonight
