

Defy Our Oath

Neurotech

There is a sign
Unveiling tide
As the ailing crime
Awakens in our eyes

They break in
The violent times
They steal the night
They are making
All these years
Can't disappear anymore

Oh, we have wanted to go
Home
We have got to
Defy our oath

There is design
To realign
As the borderline
Takes you through the blackest white

They break in
The violent times
They steal the night
They are making
All these years
Can't disappear anymore

Even with warning cries
The structure will fail
Beneath we stand together

Even in higher tides
We have to set sail
As common sense forever
Prevails

Oh, we have wanted to go
Home
We have got to
Defy our oath
