

Divided Bliss

Neurotech

Some things are better not to know

From the gutter of emptiness
I utter my everything
Caught in the web and I don't care
Anymore

In denial of remedy
Viciously crafted melancholy
Is paving the way
Like never before

Breaking out like it's the first time
No incident is just like the last one
Divided bliss comes from the causes
After all, we design our own choices
Within

Some things are better not to know
Sometimes it's better just to go
Through hard times

There can be so many changes
To ease the strain
So many ways to rearrange this
Just redefine strength of the soul

Redefine strength of the soul
