

When the fate drifts away in shades
Shape and form no longer exists
Founded on distraction, enslavement
Purify, excel, and..

Answer the hate call
And I will say it again
Answer the hate call
Collide with the circled machine

This is the path to Subsonic Omega reign
And I will show you the way
One take - one life
Truth is wrapped in abominable side

When yourself becomes no self
When the price to pay is overrated
When denial of life takes its toll
The only thing left is searching for you
