

Sleepwalkers Lifeline

Neurotech

Lying awake
Concealing the fate
On this journey

Lying awake
Reoccurring checkmate
Until the very last day

Through the white and
Through the grey and
On the contrary

What is right and
What betrays
There's nobody left to blame

Race through the night
Is payed with sunlight
Unable to find
Bewildering right signs
Race through the night
Is payed with sunlight
I'm aching to find
Sleepwalkers Lifeline

Lying awake
Fueling the hate
Without mercy

Lying awake
Processing heartache
Fatal mistake

I've seen the mask come down
Crestfallen
We are the fallen
With an urge to unify
