

Is It Dead

Neuroticfish

Is it dead?
I don't know.
All the people I would ask, they do not show.
Is it dead?
I can not say.
All the usual suspects do not come to play.

Is it dead?

Is it wrong or not to last
that I worship all the idols from my past?
Is it sad to move on?
Or do I need to breathe in life before it's gone?

Is it dead?

Is it bad
to let go?
There has always been a time and place you know.
Is it good to lose track
of all you held so dear
and never to get back?
