Never Shout Never

You've been talking about leaving for two weeks and counting
Well can't you just make up your mind
I like a girl who is true to her word but more than that
A girl who is true to her heart

So if you go if you go
Let me know let me know
That you're gone and you're not coming back
'Cause I wouldn't have that.

And so the hours are creeping and you keep repeating
You never have felt so alone.
But baby I told you last week that my heart was to keep
If you told me that you would stay home.

So if you go if you go
Let me know let me know
That you're gone and you're not coming back
'Cause I wouldn't have that.

And if you stay if you stay
Tell me right away
I'll give you one last chance
To pull my heartstings.

Baby all I ever wanted for you was the best
But I guess your second guess was your best bet
To get out of this town
But it bought you farther.

Down down down
Just like I was
With my heart on a thread
And my soul on the run
Well I'll give you one last chance

So if you go if you go
Let me know let me know
That you're gone and you're not coming back
So I can have my heart back
